KEITH HENNESSY

Keith Hennessy is an award-winning performer, choreographer, teacher and organizer. He was born in Canada, lives in San Francisco and works often in Europe. His interdisciplinary research engages improvisation, spectacle, ritual and public action as tools for investigating and revisoning political realities. Alone and with others, Hennessy makes politically engaged, soul touching performance for humans.

Keith Hennessy began Contact studies in Montreal in 1979 with Dena Davida, Catpoto, Andrew Harwood, and began teaching in 1982. Keith trained & evolved as an improviser with Terry Sendgraff and Lucas Hoving & then several amazing years with Sara Shelton Mann and CONTRABAND. He has learned more in rehearsal, jam, and performance than in classes. Keith continues to explore Contact/Improvisation within a context of interdisciplinary performance action, spectacle, and ritual.

Hennessy directs Circo Zero Performance and is a PhD student at UC Davis. He was a member of the collaborative performance companies: Contraband (85-94), CORE (95-98), and Cahin-caha, cirque bâtard (98-02). CONTACT! IMPROVISATION! PERFORMANCE!

Presence.
Now, here, being.
Spontaneous composition.
Improvisation as potential shamanic action.

Entertainment, art, ritual, practice, pedagogy, performance.

Contact Improvisation is our home base for metaphoric and embodied travel through the fields of performance, intimacy, risk, ritual, community, and action.

To perform improvisation is to perform both the process and the promise of creativity. We make something and give it away, simultaneously. The workshop will explore the tendency towards entertainment as well as the critiques of virtuosity and spectacle. Who are you trying to please?

And we will experiment; we will play like scientists, like alchemists, who mix ingredients just to see what will happen. Religious intentions of awareness, transformation and revelation encounter political goals of diversity, consensus, freedom.
